The eternal unchanging principals of the maxims of law are:

(a A matter must be expressed to be resolved.

(b) In commerce Truth is sovereign and Truth is expressed by means of an affidavit.

(c) An unrebutted affidavit stands as truth in commerce.

(d) An affidavit not rebutted point-for-point after thirty (30) days becomes the judgment in commerce.

(e) A man may not with impunity infringe on another man's rights.
